

Name: _____

Pick an environment that you encounter every day (park, kitchen, classroom, etc.). Sketch a ground plan as if that space was a set for a play. Remember to think about the following questions while designing your space:

- Where does the audience sit?
- How do actors move about the space?
- How can you make adjustments so that the audience can always see the actors' faces and understand concepts of power and relationship?

