

PRIDE NAME: _____

DIRECTIONS: Using both the ideas brainstormed by the class and the vision board for the Elephant Graveyard as inspiration, each member of your Pride will create a Shenzi mask.

1. Identify the main emotion for your character.
2. Working individually, create a sketch of what your mask will look like, blending the physical and personality traits of your character.
 - Use the character word wall created by the class and provided image of your animal as inspiration for what physical and personality traits to include.
 - Use the vision board for the Elephant Graveyard as inspiration for color, texture, patterns, and shape.
3. Create your mask.
 - Using a paper plate or cardboard, create a base for your mask.
 - Using the other craft materials your teacher provided, add the details.

PRIDE NAME: _____

DIRECTIONS: Using both the ideas brainstormed by the class and the vision board for Pride Rock as inspiration, each member of your Pride will create a Nala mask.

1. Identify the main emotion for your character.
2. Working individually, create a sketch of what your mask will look like, blending the physical and personality traits of your character.
 - Use the character word wall created by the class and provided image of your animal as inspiration for what physical and personality traits to include.
 - Use the vision board for Pride Rock as inspiration for color, texture, patterns, and shape.
3. Create your mask.
 - Using a paper plate or cardboard, create a base for your mask.
 - Using the other craft materials your teacher provided, add the details.

PRIDE NAME: _____

DIRECTIONS: Using both the ideas brainstormed by the class and the vision board for the Jungle as inspiration, each member of your Pride will create a Pumbaa mask.

1. Identify the main emotion for your character.
2. Working individually, create a sketch of what your mask will look like, blending the physical and personality traits of your character.
 - Use the character word wall created by the class and provided image of your animal as inspiration for what physical and personality traits to include.
 - Use the vision board for the Jungle as inspiration for color, texture, patterns, and shape.
3. Create your mask.
 - Using a paper plate or cardboard, create a base for your mask.
 - Using the other craft materials your teacher provided, add the details.