Name: ____________________________________________

Think of a conflict and resolution you experienced that would make a good play. What was the conflict and how was it resolved? What would be the beginning, middle, and end of your play?

__________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________