PRIDE NAME: ______________________________

DIRECTIONS: The playwright’s job is to imagine and write the story for a play. Today, you will become playwrights. Work with your Pride to write a scene about Zazu’s first day as Mufasa’s advisor.

1. Remember that all good plays have a clear beginning, middle, and end. Before you start writing, brainstorm plot ideas for each moment of your scene.

   Beginning: ____________________________________________________________

   Middle: ______________________________________________________________

   End: _________________________________________________________________

2. Now that you have ideas for the beginning, middle, and end of your scene, it’s time to write dialogue. Remember to use clear voices for each character and use stage directions for any important action in your scene.

   Example:

   Simba: I’m so hungry I could eat a whole zebra!

   (Timon and Pumbaa hide behind a rock so they don’t get eaten.)
SESSION 6: LANGUAGE

PRIDE NAME: ___________________________________

DIRECTIONS: The playwright’s job is to imagine and write the story for a play. Today, you will become playwrights. Work with your Pride to write a scene about the day Timon and Pumbaa first met.

1. Remember that all good plays have a clear beginning, middle, and end. Before you start writing, brainstorm plot ideas for each moment of your scene.
   - Beginning: ____________________________________________________________
   - Middle: ______________________________________________________________
   - End: _________________________________________________________________

2. Now that you have ideas for the beginning, middle, and end of your scene, it’s time to write dialogue. Remember to use clear voices for each character and use stage directions for any important action in your scene.

Example:

Simba: I’m so hungry I could eat a whole zebra!

(Timon and Pumbaa hide behind a rock so they don’t get eaten.)
SESSION 6: LANGUAGE

PRIDE NAME: ______________________________

DIRECTIONS: The playwright’s job is to imagine and write the story for a play. Today, you will become playwrights. Work with your Pride to write a scene about what Scar was doing during the presentation of baby Simba.

1. Remember that all good plays have a clear beginning, middle, and end. Before you start writing, brainstorm plot ideas for each moment of your scene.

   Beginning: ____________________________________________

   Middle: ______________________________________________

   End: ________________________________________________

2. Now that you have ideas for the beginning, middle, and end of your scene, it’s time to write dialogue. Remember to use clear voices for each character and use stage directions for any important action in your scene.

   Example:

   __________________________
   Simba: __________________________
   __________________________
   I’m so hungry I could eat a whole zebra!
   __________________________
   __________________________
   __________________________
   (Timon and Pumbaa hide behind a rock so they don’t get eaten.)