

PRIDE NAME: _____

DIRECTIONS: Today, you will create a vision board for the Elephant Graveyard scene. Use the word wall you created as a class as inspiration.

1. Read the description of your scene:

Simba and Nala have disobeyed Zazu and have run off to the elephant graveyard where hungry hyenas roam. This is beyond the borders of the Pridelands, and the cubs find themselves in real danger before they are saved by Mufasa.

2. Using the materials provided, create a collage that shows the words, colors, and emotions from the word wall for your designers.

- Write the name of your scene in an obvious spot on the collage.
- Use images and words.
- Make sure everyone in your Pride contributes to the vision board.

TIP

It may be helpful to have some Pride members cutting and choosing materials while others paste and organize the vision board.
